Bif and Jet... they're too cool!

These dudes are always in the mood to party! They don't let anything bum them out! They toss cans at anything that bends 'em out of shape or gets 'em torqued. Armed with tin cans they pick up in the rivers, the dudes waste any creeps that get in the way of having a good time. Stuff like sticks, branches, and stupid logs that can pop a tube. And those creeklade geeks like street punks, free-casting fishermen, swamp monsters and kamikaze penguins are really the pits.
